Case Study - Global Quality Assurance Specialist

One of the Quality Assurance Specialist's job scope is to be able to identify good content quality on the TikTok LIVE platform. If you were to review the content, how do you currently find the quality of content in the region that you are applying for? What are some of the good quality content and bad quality content on the platform of that region? Please share your findings and opinions with us.